Saver Spotlight

Christian Hernandez Have you ever wondered why people select a certain major? For some the answer may be simple, and for others there are more twists and turns in their academic journey. Knowing this was an important life decision, Christian Hernandez looked both within and to his future goals: "My personal values align with community building and engagement. In selecting a major I decided to pursue communications because of its ubiquitous nature and the opportunity to use the skills acquired in school to help people.
